Tamar, thank you for setting this up.

Since we are meeting in the BID Security conference room, I am going to have my security supervisor, Steve Seyler in attendance, along with my operations director Joe Mariani.

Would it be appropriate for me to invite Dan Chismire, the asst GM of Hollywood & Highland? He is closest to the action, and has been involved with this issue for as long as me.

Please advise.

P.S. I had a long chat with Carol Sobel yesterday; very informative, and she gave me some helpful ideas. I used the approach, "if you were in my shoes managing the BID, what would you do...?"

Anyone you want to invite is fine, but Bruce Carter, the attorney for Disney, is just looking at the problem from his company's intellectual property p.o.v.
We'll give it a shot on Monday.

Bruce and Kerry,

Let's try to set up a meeting next week in Hollywood for the three of us to brainstorm about the characters.

Monday, Feb. 6 - 10 a.m. or 2 p.m.

Thursday, Feb. 9 - 10 a.m. or 2 p.m.

Let me know if any of these dates/times work for you.

Thanks.

Tamar, Monday Feb 6 would work. I could be there at 10:15 a.m.

Thursday Feb 9 – 2 p.m. would work.

Could we plan to meet at Hollywood/Highland? I could make the BID security office available (just below CA Pizza Kitchen) and we could walk out to the street. I would like to bring my colleague, Joe Mariani with me.

Also, for Bruce's enlightenment, here is the shock and awe video we made in 2010. This preceded the LAPD enforcement effort and the "summer of peace." The password is

Hollywood characters update

I called my friend in the Board of Equalization, and he directed me to Kevin Jennings, the Supervising Special Agent, at the Franchise Tax Board. I left him a message at 916-845-4062, but I never heard back. Perhaps someone else would like to try to get him or someone from his office at our next CIT meeting?

I also spoke with an attorney from Disney about the characters. We had a brief, but interesting conversation about some of the legal problems involved with the studios going after the characters. The attorney, Bruce Carter, would like to meet to further discuss the issue. Is anyone else interested in meeting him with me?

Thanks.

Tamar,

I am very happy to meet with the attorney.

Tamar, were you able to view the "shock and awe" video?

I am happy to try to contact the Franchise Tax Board – unless any of our LAPD friends think they would have a better chance?
